

CONNECTEDSIGNSM

Connectedsign, LLC is on the move.

News Press Release | For Immediate Release, January 4, 2010

Lancaster, Pennsylvania, U.S.A, January 4, 2010: ConnectedSign LLC, a leading provider of Digital Signage solutions in the United States and Canada has moved.

The new office and showroom are located in the recently renovated historic buildings of Urban Place www.urbanplacelancaster.com. Built in 1865, Urban Place is named for Lancaster's legendary architect, C. Emlen Urban who designed many of the buildings. Urban place was home to the Armstrong Cork Company, Armstrong World Industries, and in later years the Kerr Glass Company. Current residents of Urban Place include The Cork Factory Hotel – due to open in March 2010, The Science Factory, and many others.

“2009 was a great year for ConnectedSign and our new location will aid us in our continued commitment to providing our customers and partners with the best Digital Signage solutions on the market”, says Brigitte Bucklin, ConnectedSign's VP of Sales and Marketing.

If you have any questions about the new location, or would like to visit the Digital Signage showroom, please contact ConnectedSign at 866-833-2723.
